Who Are the Friends of Southeastway Park?

The Friends of Southeastway Park are individuals, groups, and organizations who make financial contributions to Southeastway Park. Friends of Southeastway Park are also volunteers who donate their time and energy to help at park seasonal events. Volunteers also serve on our Advisory Council when openings occur.

For more information about donating or volunteering, please call the Park Office at: (317) 327-4834

Or, fill out the attached form and send to:

Shelter & Picnic Sites:
Shelters: Southeastway Park has 6 large picnic shelters available for rental. These shelters are perfect for company picnics, family reunions, and church outings. Shelters can accommodate groups up to 100 people.

Picnic Sites: Southeastway park has 3 picnic sites available for rental. Picnic sites are ideal for family and small group picnics. These sites are not covered. Sites can accommodate groups up to 50 people. An activity center is also available during the winter. Please call the park for more information: (317) 327-4834.

Seasonal Events At Southeastway Park

Educational Programs:
Southeastway Park offers a wide variety of environmental education programs for school, scout, and public groups. Contact the park office for more information.

Maple Syrup Season:
From mid-February through mid-March groups can witness maple syrup making in progress and taste the results!

Summer Camps:
Southeastway Park offers a variety of environmental education camps for ages 4 to 15. These camps focus on hands-on experiences in the outdoors.

Bug Fest:
Offered the last Sunday in August, Bug Fest is a free, fun, family event. Learn about the wonderful world of insects and earn a degree in "bugology"! (Volunteers needed!)

Hayrides:
In the fall, Southeastway Park offers hayride programs. The program consists of a 3 hour shelter rental, a campfire, and a tractor-pulled hayride. It's one of the best ways to enjoy Indiana's beautiful autumn season.
